Stuart-

I am so glad you were in my history class because if you hadn't been I never would have gotten to know you as well as I do. You're going to be pretty busy senior next year with all the offices you were elected to! I sure hope you have a great time at that hiking place in Mexico - I know you will. Stu - never forget - There are four classifications of people - Negroes, Catholics, Jews, & Protestants! Good luck always.

Love,
Marilyn

Dearest Stuart,

You have been such a cute-y ~~man~~ this year. Next year, I know you'll be even better because then you will be H & O Pres. and Student Council Sgt-at-arms, etc. Don't let it go to your head, though. Stuart, you have been a good friend to me, throughout all of our misunderstandings and all. Even though we think differently, ~~to~~ I think we still have a very deep + sincere relationship. Write to me next year at Stanford (try not to smear it) - Maybe you will decide to go there. Good luck next year—

Fall

Summer's green turned gold shook the

and red and brown, and breezy afternoons colors loose. A lively prelude to bare branches . . .

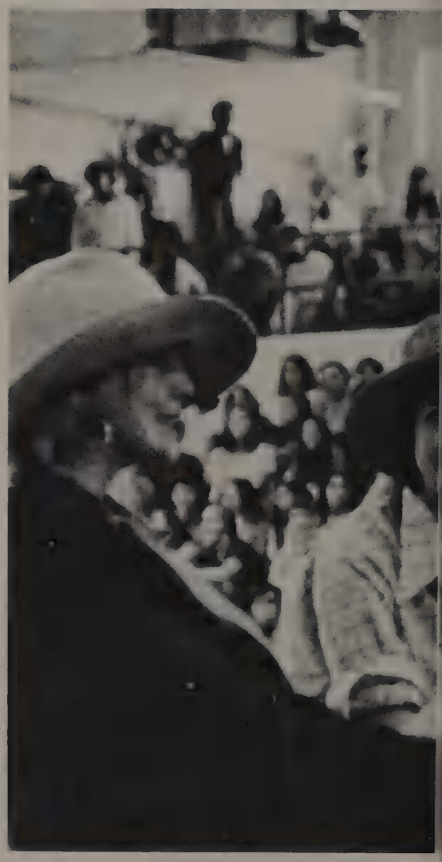
August 20–here we go again . . .

Although the temperature on August 20 registered in the upper 90's, that day really signalled the beginning of Fall for us, for it ended our three months of freedom and began the '73-'74 school year.

We chose our classes, teachers, got our books, took a disbelieving walk through the halls . . . had it really been three months . . . met our new principal Harry Orem, talked about our summer voyages, adventures, jobs, . . . but there was no use ignoring it: school had begun!

ON A HOT, STICKY SUMMER DAY (right) coaches Jim Keener and Ted Masser edge their way through hordes of students waiting in line for class scheduling. For the first time students could pick their schedules as well as their teachers. DESPITE STUDENT COUNCIL'S (far right) superhuman effort to distribute books later that day, problems (and books) kept piling up.



LOCAL ATTORNEY MS. ROSE SPECTOR (above) speaks on the responsibilities of 18 year-olds as adults under the new law at a special assembly for juniors and seniors. PEP RALLIES (right) became mandatory but skits (like the famous pill performance) were discontinued until "further notice."

During the first months of school Mr. Orem's main objective was to do away with the standard discipline policy and ask students to become more aware of their responsibilities in the area of student behavior.

An all new student handbook was highly publicized, pep rallies became an increasing problem, and Student Council pondered the impeachment of lazy representatives. As usual Spurs were getting ready for their early November tryouts.

That preliminary feeling of excitement which comes with the beginning of school was slowly wearing off, and we began to dream of the Thanksgiving holidays just around the corner.

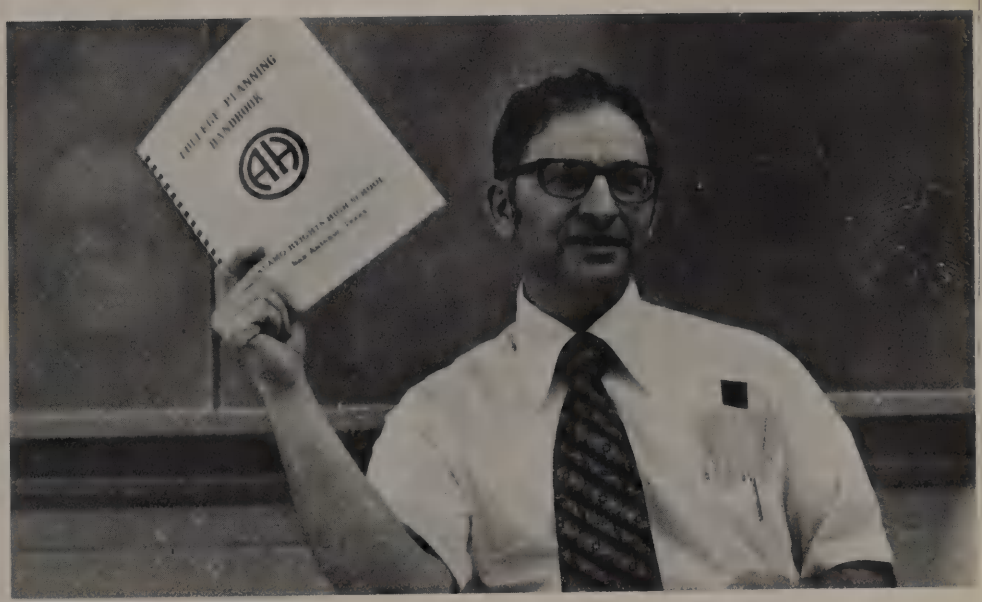
OLMOS HONORS—In the fall of '73, when Spiro Agnew's taxes seemed to be causing a lot of commotion, Mike Fanning decided to write a letter to the editors of TIME magazine. Mike found it extremely ironical that one moment, the former Vice-President accused the news media of misinterpreting his case, and the next moment called for a press conference at which to declare his innocence. TIME printed the AH senior's letter in the September 30, '73 issue; any future VP's had better watch out for Mike . . .

OLMOS HONORS—When John Ambler returned from his trip to Freedoms Foundation in September, Hoof Print Associate Editor Jane McConnell described his reactions to the singular experience in a feature published in the newspaper. The story caught the eye of Interscholastic League Press Conference Director Dr. Max Haddick who promptly mailed her a Special Citation for Proficiency, the first earned by an AHHS journalist in recent years.

OLMOS HONORS—Summer for most is swimming in the local pool, but some Heightsters managed to do a little more with the '73 vacation. Kirt Kinnie, Allison Herder, and John Gilliland went to summer school in a rather tropical location, Hawaii. Karen Hoffman and Martha Spivey were part of an American Institute of Foreign Studies tour in Europe, sponsored by Mrs. Rose Ranson. Heather Douglass lived and studied for several months south of the border, while Ann Kaufman and (not pictured) Melanie Kaliff, Betsy Landsman, and Alice Ball traveled to Europe with Mr. Johnnie Eng on a "People to People" tour.

SPECIAL APPEARANCES (below) by visitors from a local brewery, Mars, and Barnum and Bailey's Circus highlighted Student Council's Halloween dressup day.

OLMOS HONORS—Every summer, the American Legion Department of Texas sponsors Boy's and Girl's State, a government workshop. In June of '73, Jeff Sugarman stayed in Austin, and Lisa Embs traveled to Seguin to find out what democratic governments are all about. The 500 or so high school student representatives organized themselves into cities and counties and actually governed their "state". Seminars and speakers also contributed to the week-long project, which is designed to develop young citizens' attitudes toward the democratic governing system.



NEW HEAD GUIDANCE COUNSELOR FRANK LACAVA (above) explains to a junior English class how to use the College Planning Handbook that he assembled during the summer.

But beyond our local habitat was a world of many problems. A scandal called Watergate gave some an interest in politics and alienated others. A very short, secure peace we had experienced for the first time in our lives following the truce in Viet Nam was interrupted by another war, this time in the Middle East. This helped trigger a fuel crisis which threatened to change our life styles.

BOOKS WERE STACKED (above) on tables due to leakage which permeated the library's roof. SAN ANTONIO RECORDED (above right) the heaviest amount of rainfall in its history this year, and fall was the wettest season. Many of the H_2O molecules subsided in the familiar Olmos Basin. A PACKED AUDITORIUM CROWD (right) oohed, aahed and yaahed along with Alamo Heights '63 graduate Jim Collum and his Happy Jazz Band. Jim played his first engagement at the Mulestall and this marked his triumphant return 10 years later.

Meanwhile, back at school, students were making last minute preparations for their finals in mid-November. As the first quarter was ending plans for the second trimester were underway. Fall's last days were coming to a slow end, and students could think only of the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays ahead. Chillier weather made us bundle up, and the end of one season became the beginning of another . . .

'Exciting' word for '73 season

Alamo Heights enjoyed an exciting and colorful football season in 1973, cheering on a dedicated team that fought to four victories and a tie in one of the most challenging districts in the state.

The Mules were marked by an exceptional defense and unbreakable competitive spirit. Twice during the district season a highly-favored foe stopped the Mules inches short of an upset triumph, and only one of the Heights losses came by more than seven points.

The fine performance of the football team was reflected further when eight players were named to the 29–AAAA all-district squad. Rudy Jimenez was named to both the offensive and defensive teams, while Arhtur Gutierrez, John Hendry, George Livesay, and Tom Bullard received deserved recognition as selections to the offensive or defensive lists. Picked for honorable mention awards were Eric Sanchez, Carlos Collazo, Bobby Howell, Eliot Cunningham, and Kevin Conger.

Home football games proved to be especially exhilerating for Heightsters in the fall. The Mules won four out of five times on their own field. Spectacular victories came over Austin Anderson by 17-7; San Marcos by 30-6; Highlands by 7-0; and Sam Houston by 16-7. Only an opening loss to Holmes marred the home season.

Although Heights was less successful in its six "away" contests, a good battle was offered to all opponents, and only seven points seperated the Mules from three more wins.

Especially memorable were the narrow 10-7 and 7-0 losses to Seguin and New Braunfels, the two district powers, which surprised everybody but the players on the field. Other close misses came in a 15-14 final loss to Roosevelt and a 0-0 tie with McCollum. Only the 27-0 defeat by MacArthur seemed worthy of disappointment.

OLMOS HONORS—These five students may be posed as dummies, but as a result of excellent Preliminary Aptitude Test scores, they are actually National Merit Semi-finalists. Rob Boldrick, Elizabeth Campbell, Ben McCaleb, Barry Gleichenhaus, and Robert Hardin are five of the seven semi-finalists from Alamo Heights. The two others, Diana Ranson and Sidney Swearingen, are attending college this year. The seven are among a select 15,000 high school students across the nation, and are in competition for some 3000 Merit Scholarships to be awarded in the spring.

Winter

After fall's warm glow, a cold quietness crept in. A resting period, and yet a time for growth. . .

Dear Stuart -
It's been lots of fun knowing you this year: going to contests, givings contests, doing math, going to conventions, and of course all those fun parties. Good luck with MAO next year. And have a good time.

Love,
Donna

Winter sleep sets in

. . . the colorful autumn days and foliage merged into cold, dreary winter. While Nature entered its sleepy season, the school stayed awake.

Students read about the new Vice President Gerald Ford, a shaky Mid

East peace, and the fuel shortage, up to now just another front page story. The shortage was felt when some service stations closed at 6 p.m., others were "out of gas." In mid-December a City Public Service Board plea to area school to turn off all unnecessary lights helped narrowly avert an S.A. fuel crisis.

Nevertheless, Christmas or Chanuka holidays began on schedule and "school" took a brief nap.

WHILE ON OUR COURTS (above left) "America's number one male chauvinist pig" Bobby Riggs explains that the reason he lost to Billy Jean King was because his vitamins backfired. A.P.C. Stuart -

Congrats on all of your offices and honors you got this year. To a great year of S.C. next year. See you soon, CRESTED BUTTE, COLORADO (above) was a familiar winter vacation site for Alamo Heights skiers during the Christmas holidays. MARY LIONS (right) bundles up for her cool 68 degree classroom as thermostats were turned down in all AHISD schools in response to instructions from Texas Governor Briscoe and Commissioner of Education Dr. J. W. Edgar to trim fuel consumption by 15 percent.

MEMBERS OF FCA listen as SA Spur George Karl speaks about the importance of sportsmanship.

After the Christmas vacation, we were confronted with the energy crisis which turned down our thermostats, crowded our cars, and set clocks ahead. Arriving at school in the dark was a new experience, and probably the first major change we noticed.

About this time many AH students took an interest in SA's new ABA basketball team, the Spurs, and made the short drive to the Convention Center weekly to watch them rack up an incredibly winning season.

On the national scene, the media focused the public's eye on the presidential impeachment question, and almost failed to cover the three astronauts who spent a record 84 days in their outer space home, Skylab. However, many students rushed home to catch the brand new Star Trek reruns that began in January.

OLMOS HONORS—When Phyllis Thomas's friends started twirling, she decided to do the same. So since the age of six, she has been practicing and competing, and has accumulated 400 to 500 trophies and honors. She was Grand Champion with two batons in state competition at age 10, and third in the National Competition when she was 15. Phyllis has been the Alamo Heights feature twirler for three years, delighting football fans with her halftime routines. Too bad she's a senior . . .

February began with a bang as seniors caravaned to the San Antonio Stock Show and Rodeo for their big day. The energy crisis prevented any out of town field trips. Los Amigos carnation sales put every one in the mood for Valentines Day. Curiosity and hopefulness brought many Heightsters to first period classes a few minutes early to pick up Cupid's heart-piercing arrows. Sentimental cards marked the midpoint of the shortest month, which ended the second quarter and left exam-exhausted students looking forward to Easter and Fiesta Week.

'74 team tough

A talented and competitive basketball team represented Heights in a fierce District 29-AAAA race during 1973-4, and through scrappy play and a never-say-die attitude, emerged with a fine record.

Although the Mules suffered through a tough and disappointing early district season, they came back to win their last five consecutive loop contests to even their 29-AAAA record at 7-7, good for fourth place overall behind Highlands, Roosevelt and New Braunfels.

Heights also chalked up a 16-17 season record in a long schedule of matchups with many of the top cage teams in the city and state.

Senior Jim Brosseau was the leading shooter for the Mule offense this year, tallying 410 total points for a 12.4 average. Gary Jochimsen also was a top performer with a 12.0 scoring rate, while Pete Bommer and Cecil Martinez contributed at averages of 9.0 and 7.1, respectively.

Also playing regularly for coach Mel Barborak were Wayne O'Connell, Tom Stanley, John Hendry, and Steve Brannan.

The Mules were 8-10 in pre-district action, which included competition in the Spring Branch Invitational Tournament in Houston, the North East Invitational, and the St. Mary's Holiday Tournament during Christmas.

Heights also saw some very exciting regular pre-district games, such as our 51-44 victory over Central Catholic, our 49-45 triumph over Fox Tech, and our 50-45 defeat of Churchill. All three of these Mule victims were rated in the top five of the city during the season.

District 29-AAAA play opened January 2, and at first the Mules seemed headed for a disastrous year, but finished triumphantly with straight wins over San Marcos, MacArthur, New Braunfels, Roosevelt, and Sam Houston to climax a successful season.

Dear Stuart,

Thankyou for all the help you've given me this year in chosing my courses. Congratulations on all your accomplishments this year. I hope you have fun in Philmont, and please write me. Well, I guess you'll start out as an A-ranger and end up as an ex-ranger anyway, next year you'll have to go hunting on our lease with us. I hope you really have a nice summer, and if you ever need anyone to ride along with you while you run, just call me. Thanks again for everything. I hope I'll see you sometime during the summer.

Love,
Barbara

Library needs room to grow

The Mary B. Carver Library received 2000 new books this year bringing the total to more than 16,000 . . . in October some 1000 volumes had to be moved into the main hall to escape the library's drippy roof after the fall deluge . . . new equipment for student use included a xerox machine and records, film strips, slides, and cassettes on art, history, government . . . the growing store of equipment and the library's static dimensions prompted Head Librarian Mrs. Mary Thompson to identify one of the most immediate needs as "more room."

English furthers communication

English department emphasizes more effective communication—written and oral ... focus is on helping every student realize reading can be fun, writing with organization and clarity is possible, that the vicarious experiences of literature help in "finding oneself" ... individualized programs range from LAPS to special offerings for special groups, to independent study ... the major works courses offer more both in breadth and in depth—demand motivation and a competitive spirit—range from wide reading to perfecting writing skills to in-depth studies of particular authors to general studies ... improvement in reading, writing, logic for all students.

She walked out on stage, Thursday evening, performed, and stayed on as Alice for the last 35 of the play's 135 performances at the Melodrama Theater. With very little preparation, Carroll was quite a hit and, after the San Antonio run closed, went on to audition for the cast slated for the Houston and New York productions of the play.

Although the trees were bare and the grass dry, an occasional plant sprouted from beneath the earth and shouted that spring had sprung. Seniors were measured for caps and gowns and ordered invitations; plans for a four day mini-mester were underway; mild cases of "I can't wait till school is overitis" were reported to the principal's office—it seemed May 30 would never arrive.

OLMOS HONORS—In the four years that Barry Gleichenhaus, Melinda DeBriyn, and Donna Storm (not pictured) have been at Alamo Heights, they set the Math department on fire. Donna and Melinda have both placed twice in District competition. Barry placed at Andrews and was first in the John Jay meet this year, while Donna took first place at Hockaday. The three seniors also organized the first annual Alamo Heights Math Tournament with the help of Mr. Paul Foerster, and played host to some 17 local schools.

After 81 suspensions the issue of a ampus smoking area became serious nd was discussed heatedly at the oard's March meeting.

Exile and kidnapping were in ews headlines and students read that Russian Nobel prize winning author Alexander Solzhenitsyn had been xiled from his homeland for "telling t like it was." The first US political idnapping occurred when Patricia Hearst was abducted by two Symbionese Liberation Army members who demanded a $400,000,000 food giveaway to California's poor from her publisher father, Randolph Hearst. A few days later Reg Murphy, editor of the Atlanta Constitution, was kidnapped by the American Revolutionary Army, but returned after a $700,000 ransom was paid his two abductors, who were immediately captured by the FBI.

Although our last trimester was just a month old, across the street in the administration office the calendar for the '74-'75 school year had been finalized. Meanwhile, the district was one of seven its size chosen in Texas as "exemplary" for outstanding educational programs.

A group of students got interested in beautifying the campus and suddenly founded themselves an organization, the Student Labor Union, dedicated to do all kinds of things to make the school look better.

Heightsters joined in San Antonio's annual madness, Fiesta. Student Council members sold programs, the band and Spurs marched, and the famous Super Scoopers brought up the rear, as usual.

National and international news demanded attention, but as spring holidays arrived, most AH minds were boggled with thoughts of sand, surf, and sun, and other assorted activities at the one and only Port Aransas, Texas. No energy crisis could stop these coast-starved students whose heads were turned to the east by the call of the coast . . . come on y'all, let's boogie to P.A.

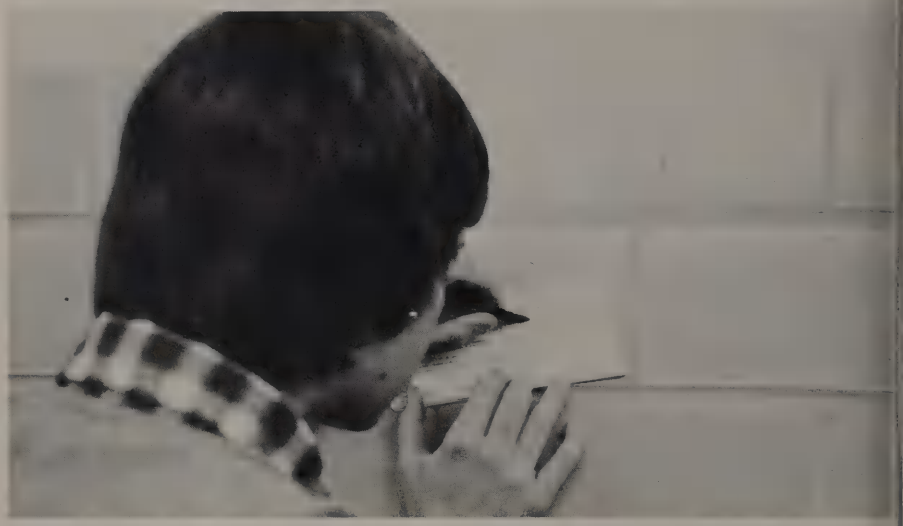
OLMOS HONORS—Gothenburg, Sweden is Nina Simonsson's real home, but she came to America last July and has been living with the James Stewarts as an Alamo Heights sophomore. Even though she comes from a large family (five children) and Gothenburg houses one-half million residents, Nina says things are bigger here in America, cars in particular. With an older brother attending AH two years ago, and six years of English in Swedish schools, Nina gets along very well in San Antonio; maybe her other brothers and sisters can come to AH.

AS SUMMER VACATION NEARS (right) thoughts of schoolwork and study take a back seat, as man and his best friend take to the water. ROB BOLDRICK signs his voter registration form, kicking off the school-wide drive sponsored by the Student Council and guidance department, which registered more than 100 18 year olds who would vote shortly in their first election.



Although the temperature on May 30 registered in the lower 90's, that day really signaled the end of spring and nine months of school, and began 81 days of freedom until the '74 fall semester.

Seniors relished the thought of college (hot dog!). Juniors were enchanted as of this day by the thought that they were the oldest and wisest in the school. Sophomores marched into the world of "upperclassmen," and the ninth graders were probably the happiest because they were no longer freshmen.

We had traveled the full cycle of the months. The year was complete in itself, full of laughter and crying and exams and pep rallies and no gas and a love story and other assorted miracles. But it also contained a seed for next year's growth . . .

OLMOS HONORS—Bridget Brierty may be only a junior, but she is a veteran of San Antonio theater. '74 vintage year for AH golfers

Alamo Heights saw another vintage year for golf during 1973-74, as the Mule linksters racked up a number of successful tournament performances before entering UIL district competition.

Golf coach James Walkup this year lead Heights to high places in a total of 12 invitational tourneys, along with strong showings in UIL playoffs during April.

The Mules won the Corpus Christi Invitational Tournament and the Bastrop Invitational, captured third in both the Marshall Invitational and the San Marcos Invitational, and finished fourth in the Stephen F. Austin Invitational.

A seventh-place award also went to Heights in the Pecan Valley Demolay Tourney, along with a 10th place honor in the San Antonio Invitational.

Other tournaments in which our golfers participated included another Corpus Christi Tournament, the Junior Golf Association Tourney, and the Seguin Invitational.

Leading the Heights squad throughout the year was senior Richard Hocott, who consistently returned excellent rounds and nabbed medalist honors in several Mule outings.

Also playing well for Heights was senior Marvin Rickabaugh, the number two man on the team, along with seniors Mike Wisdom and David McAllister, junior Paul DuBose, and sophomore Steve Lewis.

The second team contingent for golf included Mark Cavender, Matt Griffin, and John Webbles, while David Stewart, Tim Wolff, Peter Sorenson, and Eric Lange also contributed well during the tournament season.

Netters turn in brilliant season

The traditionally fantastic tennis team had its usual brilliant season at Alamo Heights during 1973-4, winning the Texas Team championship as well as dominating a number of other tournaments throughout the year.

Coach Terry Oxford led the Mules to a total of five tournament championships and an undefeated dual meet record, and had strong hopes of placing singles and doubles units in both the regional and state UIL championships in late April and May.

Victories for Heights came in the Harlingen Invitational, the San Antonio ISD championships, and the Corpus Christi UIL Tournament. A strong showing was also made in the Abeline Invitational Tournament.

Perhaps highlighting the season, however, was the Mule victory in the Texas Team tennis championship, a major playoff to determine for the first time the best overall net squad in the state. The Mules triumphed in the finals of the tourney, held December 15-16 in San Antonio, by a 10-8 count over Abeline Cooper to win the title.

Leading the boys team in the Texas Team tournament and throughout the year was Scott Walker, who won the first boys singles for the Mules, along with Paul Trautmann, who won the second boys singles and teamed with Scott to win the first boys doubles. Leigh Fischer and Susan Goldburg, in turn, were the top girl netters in that playoff.

Also making big contributions during the year were Mac Irvin, Nancy Levit, Elaine Miller, Brad Oxford, Ben McCaleb, April Manning, Martin Phillips, Barry Gleichenhaus, and Susan Brusenhan.

Depth, individual talent keys to '74 success

A fast and highly successful team represented Alamo Heights in boys swimming during 1973-4. The boy mermen placed well in several statewide invitational meets and were major contenders for the Regional Championship.

Coach Pete Williams fashioned a swim squad this year which featured much overall depth as well as individual talent. Six lettermen returned from last year's 2nd-place Regional team, and Quentin Baker, Jackson Diehl and Jim Keller were named captains.

During pre-season training, the Mule swimmers competed in a number of water polo matches, climaxing with the State Water Polo Tournament in November. Bob Kingman and George Stieren received honorable-mention all-state honors in recognition of their fine play in that meet.

Heights then opened swim competition with the Texas Coaches Pre-Christmas Invitational in Austin, taking 5th overall. Junior Loren Crow sparked the Mules in that meet with a fantastic effort in the 200 individual medley, with which he broke the school record by more than two seconds.

Victory then came to Heights in three of four dual meets with the North East ISD schools. The Mules dropped Roosevelt 110-65, Lee 164-110, and Churchill 86-85 before losing to MacArthur 90-76.

We revenged our dual meet loss to Mac by winning the North East Invitational in January easily. The boys squad then placed 9th in the T. IS. C A. championships before entering UIL Regional and State competition.

Leading the Mules at Regionals were seniors Diehl and Baker and juniors Crow, Kingman, Stieren, Stephen Diehl, Phillip Locke, David Gillespie, and Will Loomis.

'74 team small but determined

A small but determined and highly talented girls swimming team honored Alamo Heights in 1973-4 with consistently superb performances in dual and invitational meet competition.

Although graduations left only three members of last year's state championship team to coach Pete Williams, several girls developed their races tremendously during the season to help make the Mules one of the top two teams going into the Regional meet.

Captains Nancy Murray, Kathy McAlpin and Mourette Rockstroh were backed by hard-working juniors Ann Worrel and Pam Kirk, sophomores Kathy Thornhill and Julie Viets, and freshman Rhonda Brannan.

The Heights girls opened their season December 7-8 with a 7th place finish among 35 teams in the Pre-Christmas Texas Coaches Championships.

The girls then recorded a 2-2 dual meet season, excellent considering the severe depth weakness with which they were faced in dual matches. The girls beat Lee and Roosevelt easily before falling to Churchill and MacArthur.

The girl swimmers proved their true worth February 1-2 in Dallas, taking third place in the Texas Coaches State championships. Although only six Heightsters entered the meet, all placed so well that only Midland High and Midland Lee exceeded the Mule point total.

Climaxing the girl swimming season were the Regional championships March 1-2 and the UIL State Championships March 15-16.

Depth, desire: success for sluggers

Experience, depth, and overall desire combined to bring a successful baseball season to Alamo Heights during the spring, with the Mules playing a major role in the hot District 29-AAAA race.

Coach Wayne Burdette saw a total of 15 lettermen and five starters from last season's club return this year to make a strong challenge to defending loop champion MacArthur.

One of the strongest points of the Heights squad was pitching, as all four regular hurlers, sporting two or more years of experience, turned in fine performances consistently throughout the spring.

Bruce Cunningham, Bobby Wray, Daina Wilburn and Kelly Thies carried the chief throwing load, and together combined for one of the most feared pitching staffs in the district.

Also returning this year as lettermen to starting positions were Clarence "Frenchy" Burgeois, Paul Biechlin, Cole Newman, Charles Gotardy, David Sielski, Pete Cavazos, and Glen Holchak.

Others making major contributions during the season were Mason Matthews, John Conger, Rene Sanchez and Roland Castillo.

Pre-district action for Heights was highlighted by participation in the North Loop Invitational Tournament, along with the Austin ISD Invitational.

District contests then came with Sam Houston, Roosevelt, New Braunfels, San Marcos and Highlands, along with MacArthur.

AH cinder men excellent in '74

A busy track season for Alamo Heights during the spring months of 1974 brought honors to a number of Mule cindermen in UIL district and regional competition as well as in invitational meets.

A dedicated and spirited group of varsity boys led by coach Larry Martin entered six invitationals before taking on the tough District 29-AAAA competition in April in New Braunfels.

Heights opened its season in a big way by winning the San Marcos Invitational February 23. The Mule squad then went on to place well in the Judson ISD Invitational, the Northside Alamo Relays, their own Mule Relays, and the San Antonio ISD Metro Relays.

Leading the team throughout the season in running events was Lane Mitchell, a junior miler who placed highly in all of the invitational meets and who was a strong candidate for both district and regional honors.

Rudy Jimenez, meanwhile, was superb in the discus and shot put events, and repeatedly bettered his school records in throwing competitions.

Others placing in invitational meets as well as in UIL competition were George Livesay in hurdle events, along with David Lillis, Kevin Conger, Clay Becker, Bill Lehne, Tim Garison, Tom Fuhrman, Mark Nelson, John Ambler and David Liebmann.

Busy season for "cinder" ellas

The girls track team entered a heavy schedule of meets this spring looking to be a strong local contender in both UIL and invitational competition.

Coach Robin Gray predicted a good season for the girl cinder stars as they prepared for meets at Fredricksburg, Canyon, Judson, Clemens, San Marcos and New Braunfels, as well as district action in late April.

Leading the girls this spring were Leslie Shook in hurdle events; Yolanda Gomez in sprints; Sarah Ford in sprints and hurdles and Becky Syma in sprints.

Competing in middle-distance running events for the Mules were Rene Zuehl, Diane Hierholzer, Melanie Chevarie, Mourette Rockstroh, Eliza Perkins and Kathy Beck.

District champs place in state

The Alamo Heights Cross-Country Track team enjoyed a highly successful season this year, winning the district championship and placing one member in the top state races.

The Mule cross country squad, coached by Larry Martin, easily bettered all competition in the District 29-AAAA championships November 21, then went on to capture ninth place among all the teams in South Texas in the Regional championships the following weekend.

Junior Lane Mitchell also qualified for the State Cross-Country Championships by finishing third place in the regional race. The star Mule runner took 10th place overall in the state meet with an excellent time.

The cross-country unit also rightfully basked in its reputation as one of the most dedicated athletic teams in the school. The Heights runners trained arduously for their meets with long routes throughout Alamo Heights and San Antonio for over two months.

Other members of the cross-country team were seniors Tom Fuhrman and Tim Garison, juniors Bill Lehne, Stuart Gleichenhaus and Kent Griffin, and sophomore Billy Carleston.

Gymnasts form talented squad

The gymastics team, which evolved from last year's gymnastics club, this year featured a highly-talented squad of some 12 girls and two boys who practiced diligently for UIL district and regional competition in late March.

Coached by Miss Debbie Huff, the girl gymnasts also entered an invitational meet in Corpus Christi during February.

Pam Christian led Heights in that meet with a 2nd-place all-around finish. Diana Andrews also placed extremely well with a first on bars, a fifth in floor exercises, and a 4th overall standing.

Miss Huff hoped to send several girls to the UIL regional championships this year. To qualify the girls had to place in the top three overall in the district meet or in the top six in individual events.

Other Mule gymnasts joining Pam and Diana in competition were Kim Fitzgerald, Laura Gaines, Nancy McDonald, Mourette Rochstroh, Susan Turner, Phyllis Thomas, Barbara Montgomery, Leslie Shook, Mark Willis, and James Watkins.

First year for volleyball team

For the first time, Alamo Heights entered both varsity and junior varsity girls volleyball teams in district and tournament competition during 1973-4 under the direction of Miss Janis Balsamo.

The Mule girls battled with the North East ISD schools in district competition, playing each school twice. Heights also entered a volleyball tournament at Blessed Sacrament High School.

Leading the volleyball team throughout the season were captains Rene Zuehl and Diane Hierholzer.

To one of the best—
It's hard to believe that another school year has come and gone so quickly! This has been the best one yet!
Always remember the parties and basketball games,
our zany homeroom class,
and our best times ever—sharing laughs and a bottle

Stu,
This year is finally over and now we are seniors. Analyt. has been fun but very uninteresting. Andrews & Bellaire was fun, especially Andrews. In addition to that congradulations on 3rd in district. I know you will have a good time hiking around the countryside. I'll write you if you can give me your address. Be good this summer and don't have too good a time. I know your senior year will be your best so stay cool.

Love

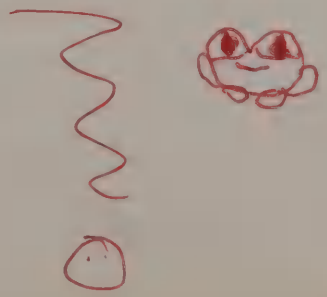
"Peter Pan"?



To look ahead . . .

become involved .

Dear Stuart,

Another year has gone by and with it another year of Spanish - Thank God! No more Spanish plays, work book exercises or book reports. Have a great time this summer, I know you will.

and experience the satisfaction of looking back . . .

The cycle repeats, encompassing more each time.

The end of a book, the end of a season . . .
whatever follows has its beginning here, just as we began elsewhere. The pieces fit; all have a place; they need one another.
Consider yourself a center–everything you experience fits together through you.
Arrange the pieces . . . and grow.

DEAR STUART,

WELL, IT SEEMS LIKE THERE SHOULD BE AN AWFUL LOT TO SAY TO YOU, BUT WE HAVE HAD A LOT OF GOOD TIMES WITH EACH OTHER, AND THERE'S NO POINT IN WRITING THEM ALL DOWN IN AN OLMOS. I HOPE YOU HAVE A WONDERFUL TIME AT PHILMONT, AND PLEASE WRITE ME, O.K.? SINCE YOU ARE IN A HURRY AND I AM TOO, I WILL SPEED THIS UP. NEXT YEAR YOU WILL HAVE TO NURSE ME THRU CALCULUS, PHYSICS, CHEMISTRY, AND PROBABLY TYPING. OH WELL, YOU ARE STANDING THERE WHISTLING, SO I WILL SEE YOU—

LOVE,
KAREN

Dear Stu,

I never got to thank you for the ice cream as much as I wanted to. I appreciated it very much because it lifted my spirits which weren't to high at the time. It was extremely considerate of you! Can you believe that we are Seniors? Be sure & give the "fresh" a hard time next yext. Good luck always & have fun this summer!

Love,
Lisa

P.S. Don't forget Dairy Queen.
